

10 ethical questions for the next 20 years

1. Surveillance

- (a) the right to privacy (free from spying intrusion)
- (b) the right to know how our personal information is used

2. Will robots have rights?

Should machines have rights and what ethical issues are involved in the interactions between humans and technology?

3. Should we allow NeuraLace - the link between Human Intelligence and Artificial Intelligence

4. Right to an income ("what if we are not working") - often called UBI

5. Freedom from Technology (the "human rights" to not being forced to use certain technologies)

6. Will humans with significantly extended life spans have special rights?

7. Should we allow the designing humans and other living organisms?

8. What ethical issues will arise when society goes into space?

9. Is it ethical to detain people or interfere with their lives based on an expectations about their future actions? AI Algorithm problem

10. Should rich people, corporations, or nations be able to buy their way out of problems? fx. Carbon Quotas